- b) Collection of exam papers and other material from the exams office before the start of the exam.
- c) Collection of all exam papers in the correct order at the end of the exam and ensuring their return to the exams office.

Candidates are responsible for:

- a) Confirmation and signing of entries.
- b) Understanding coursework / controlled assessment regulations and signing a declaration that authenticates the coursework as their own.
- c) Ensuring they conduct themselves in all exams according to the JCQ regulations.

2. Qualifications offered

The qualifications offered at this centre are decided by the Head of Centre.

The types of qualifications offered are GCSE's, BTEC, and Free Standing Maths Qualifications.

The subjects offered for these qualifications in any academic year may be found in the centre's published prospectus or similar documents for that year. If there is to be a change of specification for the next year, the exams office must be informed by September 1st.

Informing the exams office of changes to a specification is the responsibility of the Subject Leader.

Decisions on whether a candidate should be entered for a particular subject will be taken by the Subject Leader in consultation with the Head of Centre.

3. Exam series

Internal exams (mock or trial exams) and assessments are scheduled at appropriate times for all year groups, in consultation with the Subject Leaders and the Head of Centre.

External exams and assessments are scheduled in May/June for GCSE's.

Internal exams are held under external exam conditions.

The centre offers some assessments on an on-demand basis (BTEC). On-demand assessments can be scheduled only at times agreed between the Exams Officer and the relevant teaching staff.

4. Exam timetables

Once confirmed, the exams officer will circulate the exam timetables for internal and external exams before each series begins.

5. Entries, entry details and late entries

Candidates or parents/carers can, after discussion with Subject Leaders and Head of Centre, request a subject entry, change of level or withdrawal.

The centre does not accept entries from private candidates.

The centre does not act as an exams centre for other organisations.

Entry deadlines are circulated to Subject Leaders via email, briefing meetings, and internal post/pigeon hole.

Subject Leaders will provide estimated entry information to the exams officer to meet JCQ and awarding body deadlines.

Entries and amendments made after an awarding organisation's deadline (i.e. late) require the authorisation, in writing, of the Head of Centre.

GCSE re-sits are allowed under appropriate circumstances (as long as the candidate is still attending the school and the JCQ rules are adhered to).

Re-sit decisions will be made by Subject Leaders in consultation with the Head of Centre.

6. Exam fees

Candidates or departments will not be charged for changes of tier, withdrawals made by the proper procedures or alterations arising from administrative processes provided these are made within the time allowed by the awarding bodies.

The exams officer will publish the deadline for actions well in advance for each exams series.

GCSE entry exam fees are paid by the centre.

Late entry or amendment fees are paid by the centre, but are taken from departmental budgets, if it is deemed to have been an error within the department.

Fee reimbursements are sought from candidates if they fail to sit an examination and cannot provide proper supporting evidence as to why they were absent (e.g. medical note)

Re-sit fees are usually paid by the centre, but in certain circumstances, the parents of a candidate may be asked to pay for a re-sit entry.

Equality Legislation

All exam centre staff must ensure that they meet the requirements of any equality legislation.

The centre will comply with the legislation, including making reasonable adjustments to the service that they provide to candidates in accordance with requirements defined by the legislation, awarding bodies, and JCQ. This is the responsibility of the Head of Centre.

Access arrangements

The SENCo will inform subject teachers of candidates with special educational needs and any special arrangements that individual candidates will need during the course and in any assessments/exams.

A candidate's access arrangements requirement is determined by the SENCo

Ensuring there is appropriate evidence for a candidate's access arrangement is the responsibility of the SENCo

Submitting completed access arrangement applications to the awarding bodies is the responsibility of the Exams Officer.

Rooming for access arrangement candidates will be arranged by the Exams Officer and the Learning Support staff.

Invigilation and support for access arrangement candidates, as defined in the JCQ access arrangements regulations, will be organised by the Exams Officer and the SENCo.

Contingency planning

Contingency planning for exams administration is the responsibility of the Assistant Head (exams).

Contingency plans are available via email, noticeboard in the examinations office, internal post/pigeon hole and are in line with the guidance provided by Ofqual, JCQ and awarding organisations.

7. Estimated grades

Subject Leaders are responsible for submitting estimated grades to the exams officer when requested by the exams officer.

8. Managing invigilators

External staff will be used to invigilate examinations.

These invigilators will be used for internal exams and external exams.
Recruitment of invigilators is the responsibility of the Exams Officer.

Securing the necessary Disclosure Barring Service (DBS) clearance for new invigilators is the responsibility of the Finance Director.

DBS fees for securing such clearance are paid by the centre. Invigilators' rates of pay are set by the Finance Director. Invigilators are recruited, timetabled, trained and briefed by the Exams Officer.

Invigilators will receive Child protection and Health + Safety training.

Non-teaching staff may be used as invigilators, scribes and readers to meet the Access arrangements and requirements of JCQ when sufficient external staff are not available.

Malpractice

The head of centre in consultation with the Exams Officer is responsible for investigating suspected malpractice.

Exam days

The exams officer will book all exam rooms after liaison with other users and make the question papers, other exam stationery and materials available for the invigilators.

Site management staff are responsible for setting up the allocated rooms, and will be advised of requirements in advance by the Exams Officer

The Exams Officer / Lead Invigilator will start and finish all exams in accordance with JCQ guidelines.

Subject staff may not be present at the start of the exam to assist with identification of candidates. Any staff who are present must be in accordance with the rules defined by JCQ concerning who is allowed in the exam room and what they can do.

In practical exams, subject teachers' availability will be in accordance with JCQ guidelines.

Exam papers must not be read by subject teachers or removed from the exam room before the end of a session. Papers will be distributed to heads of department in accordance with JCQ's recommendations, usually 24 hours after candidates have completed them.

After an exam, the Exams Officer will arrange for the safe dispatch of completed examination scripts to awarding bodies, working in conjunction with Front Office Staff and Parcel Force.

9. Candidates

The exams officer will provide written information to candidates in advance of each exam series.

The centre's published rules on acceptable dress and behaviour apply at all times. Candidates' personal belongings remain their own responsibility and the centre accepts no liability for their loss or damage.

In an exam room candidates must not have access to items other than those clearly allowed in the instructions on the question paper, the stationery list, or the specification for that subject. This is particularly true of mobile phones and other electronic communication or storage devices with text or digital facilities. Any precluded items must not be taken into an exam room.

Disruptive candidates are dealt with in accordance with JCQ guidelines. Candidates are expected to stay for the full exam time at the discretion of the Exams Officer / Lead Invigilator.

Note: candidates who leave an exam room must be accompanied by an appropriate member of staff at all times.

The Exams Officer is responsible for handling late or absent candidates on exam day.

Clash candidates

The Exams Officer, Senior Leadership team and subject staff will be responsible as necessary for supervising escorts, identifying a secure venue and arranging overnight stays.

Special consideration

Should a candidate be unable to attend an exam because of illness, suffer bereavement or other trauma, be ill or otherwise disadvantaged or disturbed during an exam, then it is the candidate's responsibility to alert the centre's Exams Officer to that effect.

The candidate must support any special consideration claim with appropriate evidence to be provided before the last day of the scheduled exam season.

The Exams Officer will make a special consideration application to the relevant awarding body at any time before the last day of the scheduled exam season.

10. Internal assessment

It is the duty of Subject Leaders to ensure that all internal assessment is ready for dispatch at the correct time. The Exams Officer will advise Subject Leaders of the relevant deadlines.

Marks for all internally assessed work are the responsibility of the Subject Leaders. The exams officer will inform staff of the date when appeals against internal assessments must be made by. Any appeals will be dealt with in accordance with the centre's Internal Appeals Procedure (IAP) document.

11. Results

- a) Candidates will receive individual results notifications on results days, in person at the centre
- b) By post to their home address – candidates to provide a self-addressed envelope posted (recorded delivery)
- c) Collected and signed for a third party, with the written permission of the candidate

The results slip will generally be in the form of a centre produced document.

Arrangements for the centre to be open on results days are made by the Exams Officer.

The provision of the necessary staff on results days is the responsibility of the Exams Officer.

Enquiries about Results (EAR)

EARs may be requested by centre staff or the candidate following the release of results. A request for a re-mark or clerical check requires the written consent of the candidate, a request for a re-moderation of internally assessed work may be submitted without the consent of the group of candidates.

The cost of EARs will be paid by the centre, if agreed by the Head of Centre

All decisions on whether to make an application for an EAR will be made by teaching staff in consultation with the Head of Centre

If a candidate's request for an EAR is not supported, the candidate may still apply through the centre, but at the cost of the candidate rather than the centre.

All processing of EARs will be the responsibility of the Exams Officer following the JCQ guidance.

Access to Scripts (ATS)

After the release of results, candidates may ask subject staff to request the return of written exam papers within the prescribed JCQ deadline timescale.

Centre staff may also request scripts for investigation or for teaching purposes. For the latter, the written consent of candidates must be obtained.

(NOTE: An EAR cannot be applied for once an original script has been returned.)

The cost of ATS will be paid by the Centre (or candidate if they have requested the paper returned for their own records)

Processing of requests for ATS will be the responsibility of the Exams Officer.

12. Certificates

- a) Candidates will receive their certificates in person at the centre
- b) Posted provided a stamped, addressed envelope is supplied by the candidate (recorded delivery).

Certificates can also be collected on behalf of a candidate by third parties, provided they have written authority from the candidate to do so, and bring suitable identification with them that confirms who they are.

The centre retains certificates for 10 years.

If a candidate loses or damages their certificates, a new certificate will not be issued by an awarding organisation. A transcript of results can be obtained directly from the Exam Boards by the candidates. There is a cost involved in this, which is set by the Exam Boards. The centre cannot request replacement certificates of behalf of a candidate.
